Another Enoch Arden Case.

At the Police Court in Richmond on Monday Mrs. Mary Jane McCauley, the name she is now known by, a woman about thirty four years of age, was arraigned, charged with a double crime of bigamy.

The history of her life is remarkable, and perhaps without a parallel. Some time prior to 1805 Mary Jaoe McCormick, then quite a scung girl, eloped, it is alleged, from her home n Buckingham county with a man named Wells, whom she married in Potersburg. Wells died several morets after the marriage, and his videw was married to 1865 to Joseph Beset, a Frenchman, who at the time resided in Richmord Rev. Robert R, land perfora el the сегешоку.

In 1868 Bosset left Richmond for New Jer sey, from which then he often wrote to his wife, hu could get no reply. He never re-rucces to Richmon's until less Saturday. His wife, soon after be litt bere, married Livi Booth, who died a fow months of organde. She ERAIN IS NOURISHED, AND Sure enough, there beautifully taitoned in India ink was the name on one arm "Ma-ry," and on the other "Jane," surrounded by star spangled banners and other emblems .--Whenshe beheld the name she was suddenly struck dumb, for it was her own name, and she well remembered when it was placed there.

The denouement was that Bosset took out a GRAY HAIR OR WHISKERS changed to a warrant for the arrest of his wife on a doub'e charge of bigamy. She was arrested while at work at Oliver & Robinson's factory. Monday afternoon, and locked up in the Third police station. She was brought before the Police Court yesterday morning, and sent on to the grand jury of the Hustings Court. Bail was allowed in the sum of $500. In default she was committed to juil.—Richmond Dispatch.

> I COMMUNICATED. THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE IN ALEXANDRIA. I was present at the Baptist Church on Monday night last to hear Mr. Wharton on the subject of temperatee. His address was most offective, and draw tears from many eyes in the congregation when he depicted the evils of dricking, and its sad effects upon individuals and families. At his request a Lodge of Good Templars was formed the same night, which promises great good to this community. The formation of this Lodge does not interfere in any degree with the movement commenced by Rev. Mr. Pearce, of the Methodist Church, the organization of the "Reform Club," which promises such good results. Tuesday night a meeting was held in the Methodist Caurch, which was crowded, and was addressed by Mrs. Reily, of Georgetown, as well as by Mr. Peares and Mr. Boyle, both of whom urged the friends of temperance to exert themselves to find employment for some of those belonging to the clab. I trust the whole movement is not looked on coldly by the people of Alex-

Several colored immigrants in Indianapolis, returning from Green Custle, Indiana, to the South, express their disgust with the exidus movement. They say that affairs in Indiana were misrepresented to them, and that the necessaries of life are as plentiful and easily at tainable where they came from. They advise their friends in North Carolina to stay where they are. "Lot 'em alone and they'll come
